Welcome back to Cloud Town, high up in the sky! This is Episode 38. Every morning Maya carries boxes from Sammy's house to Eddie's house. One by one. Oh no! And a parcel from the old house on the ground has nowhere to land. Here comes the pipe. One end at Sammy's door. The other at Eddie's. Maya turns the valve once. Boxes glide through by themselves. Nobody carries a thing. And here is the old brass tube. The ground house sends mail the way it always did. Whoosh! It lands right in Sammy's arms. The tube lets old friends keep mailing the old way. Now you know AppFlow and MQ! See you next time in Cloud Town, high up in the sky!
