

Cloud Town — Episode 38 / The Old Tube

Oh no!

Every morning Maya carries boxes from Sammy to Eddie, one by one!

Welcome back to Cloud Town, high up in the sky!

This is Episode 38.

And a parcel from the old house on the ground has nowhere to land.

Here comes the arch pipe.

One foot by Sammy.

One foot by Eddie.

Maya turns the wheel once.

Boxes slide through by themselves.

Nobody carries a thing.

And here is the old brass tube.

The ground house sends mail the way it always did.

Whoosh!

It lands right in Sammy's arms.

That is AppFlow and Amazon MQ: AppFlow moves data between apps on its own, and MQ lets old systems keep sending messages the way they always did.

See you next time in Cloud Town, high up in the sky!
