

Cloud Town

Episode 39 — The Borrowed Badge

Lesson: IAM roles. A role is a badge you borrow for one job, then give straight back. A name tag would let someone in any time.

Voice-over

Oh no! Eddie needs a toy from inside Sammy, but Sammy is locked! Welcome back to Cloud Town, high up in the sky! This is Episode 39. Maya could give Eddie a name tag. Then Eddie could open Sammy any time. Even at night. Even when nobody is looking. That is too much. So Maya hands him a badge instead. Eddie clips it on. Click! Sammy opens. Eddie takes one toy. Then he hands the badge right back. Click! Sammy locks again. Eddie keeps nothing. Borrow it for one job. Give it straight back. That is the borrowed badge. Now you know IAM roles! See you next time in Cloud Town, high up in the sky!

Picture

1. The computer tugs the chest's locked lid. It will not open. The girl watches. Sunset street.
2. The welcome stays on that same locked chest, same street, same sunset.
3. She holds up a blank name tag, almost hangs it on the computer, then shakes her head and puts it away.
4. She clips a round teal badge with one coral star onto the computer.
5. The badge glows. The chest opens. The computer takes one toy.
6. The computer hands the badge back. The lid locks. He keeps the toy, not the badge.
7. She clips the badge to her own belt. The computer holds the toy. The chest stays locked and smiles.

60 seconds. 9:16. Sunset cobblestone street. Narrator off screen. The girl is the only human.
